Post Mauryan 2nd Cent BC. Vidarbha Coinage, Rajno Kukutakhada, Copper Unit, 5.75g Obv: An elephant walking to the right trunk raised. Ruler's name 'Rajno Kukutakhadasa' inscribed in Brahmi above and to the right of the elephant. Rev: A tree in railing. a triangle headed standard, dotted circle and a nandipada to the right.

The name Kukutakhāda alludes to the worship of Skanda - kukuta or cockerel is Skanda's attribute and "Khāda" is Prakrit for "Skānda" which means belonging to or follower of Skanda. The name suggests the king was a follower of the Skanda cult. References to this cult are seen some other coins from Vidarbha too coins or Suryamitra and Satyabhadra show a cockerel standard in railing. Some terracotta sealings found at Pauni and Adam also have the cockerel motif. Collectively, these are probably the earliest material evidence to the Skanda cult.

In later years Skanda develops into Karttikeya but also into the local god Khandoba that remains a popular folk deity across Maharashtra, particularly among the aboriginal inhabitants.

The central punch consists of the image of Ram-Laxman Bharat-Shatrughan in warrior pose - '4-warriors heading for a battle'. They hold sword in their right hands and a downward pointing dagger in their left hands. The punches are struck in two concentric circular orbits. The inner orbit consists of 16 singly struck 7-petalled lotus punches which resembles a wreath. The outer orbit punches consist of 2x Sri-Sri, 1x 'Ahitagaja' and 1x 'Kesari' in Kannada, and 4 groups of Boar-Lotus-Boar symbols interleaving the legend punches, Almost Uncirculated, extremely rare. Ahitagaja Kesari' is one of the common titles of the Kakatiyas adorned by many of the rulers of the dynasty starting from Prola-I.

Kakatiyas of Warangal, Prola-II (1110-1158 CE), Gold PMC, 2 ½ Gold Gadyana, 'Goddess Lakshmi' type, 9.96 gms, Total of 17 repousse punches elegantly hammered on the obverse of a Padma shaped circular flan. The central punch consists of the image of Goddess Lakshmi seated in Padmasana within an arched Garbhagriha, the sanctum sanctorum. She holds two lotus flowers in her upper hands which are the symbols of beauty, prosperity and fertility. The lower 2 hands are in the abhaya mudra of divine protection and the varada mudra of granting boon. The peripheral circumfluent punches consist of 2x Sri-Sri, 1x 'Mandalika' and 1x 'Kesari' all inscribed in Kannada, and 4 groups of Lotus-Boar-Lotus symbol punches interleaving the legend punches. The boar is shown walking facing right. Almost Uncirculated, extremely rare.

Lot: 188

Kakatiyas of Warrangal, Prola-I (1052-1076 CE), Gold PMC, 2 ½ Gold Gadyana, 9.96 gms, The Obverse consists of total of 30 repousse punches hammered on the obverse of a thin pure gold circular flan. The central punch consists of the images of Krishna and Balarama, Holy cow above and Conch below adorns the middle field that separates the brothers. The other punches are struck in two concentric circular orbits. The inner orbit consists of 13 singly struck Lion punches, with Lion facing right with lifted forepaw. The second and outmost orbit consists of 4x 'boar-Lotus-boar' punches on four quadrants. Here the boar is shown facing right with Sun and Moon symbols above. Other Kannada legend punches that separate the symbol punches are 2x Sri-Sri, 1x 'mandala' and 1x 'manda'. Almost Uncirculated, Exceedingly rare. The 'mandala manda' is perhaps a title that needs detailed research. No epigraphs have ever come across that mentions such a title but there are known many small PMC 1 Gadyanas with a similar legend in which Yama adorns the central punch. All the known big coins are generally assigned to the powerful Kakatiya ruler Prola-I (1052-1076 CE) due to his titles seen in those coins. And this being found together with the others is not an exception for the said attribution. The central motif has a resemblance to the Krishna-Subhadra Balaram idols of Jagannath temple of Puri. The legend mandala refers to district or town whereas the other punch 'manda' is similar in appearance as that of 3.8gm coin with the legend punch manda of 'manda-lika'.

Estimate: ₹400000 - ₹500000

Sultanate

Lot: 189

Kakatiyas of Warrangal, Prola-I (1052-1076 CE), Gold PMC, 2 ½ Gold Gadyana, '3-Warrior type', 9.98 gms, The Obverse consists of total of 20 repousse punches hammered on the obverse of a circular flan. Unpublished variety and known for the first time. The central punch consists of the images of 3 warriors carrying a sword in the right hand and a downward pointing dagger in the left hand. The other punches are struck in two concentric circular orbits. The inner orbit consists of 12 singly struck Boar punches as if a garland of boar pendants. The boar is facing left adorned with Sun and Moon symbols above. The outer orbit punches consist of 2x Sri-Sri, 1x 'Govara singha' and 1x eight petalled Lotus, and 4x symbols Lion facing left with lifted forepaw interleaving the other legend punches. Uncirculated, extremely rare. The 'Govara singha' title has appeared for the first time and on the Kakatiya coin. So far, 2-warrior and 4-warrior types were known, and this is a bridging coin of the series and is an interesting addition to one's collection. The above coin is assigned to Prola-I (1052-1076 CE) as the other warrior types were formally assigned to Prola-I. The 'Govara singha' title simply means - the King, the lion, the protector of the cows.

Nawab of Bengal, Iltimad Ud-Daula Mir Qasim issue, Silver ¼ Rupee (2 Anna), 1.41g, Munger Mint, RY 4, Uncirculated, Unique (only pc known), The Specimen offered here is listed in Zeno by Lingen, Paul Stevens has recognised and listed the coin under munger, CAT No. BE 160E. Historically important coin. The Nawab of Bengal, Itimad Ud-Daula Mir Qasim (1760-1763) shifted his capital from Murshidabad to Munger in June, 1762 (1175 AH). After a year's reign he was removed as the Nawab by the East India Company in July 1763 (1176 AH). During this period, Mir Qasim glorified the Munger city and established a mint there and issued coins. Interestingly this fraction is minted from a Nazrana die which is entirely different from conventional Munger rupees bearing the Sun symbol, Instead this has a five dot rosette symbol on the obverse side. As we get conventional Sun Siccas in the Hizri year 1177 AH from Munger mint, so it must be issued by the company. This new design was introduced by the Nawab probably to differentiate from normal sun siccas of other Bengal mints which were mainly controlled by the company to depreciate their values in 'Battas', which was one of the main reason behind the war between Nawab and company. Either this Nazrana die was not circulated due to the pressure of the company or withdrawn after the fall of Mir Qasim.

EIC, Charles II, Silver Rupee, 11.36g, with undeciphered Persian inscription (Farsi) on obv. and rev., popularly known to be in the name of the King of England Charles II, (See P. P. Kulkarni article in "Journey from Bombaim to Mumbai" a Shukla Day Coin Fair Souvenir). Extremely Fine, Very Rare. According to the article in "A Journey from Bombaim to Mumbai" the above coin is believed to have been struck at Mumbai during the reign of Charles II. However, Paul Stevens demonstrated this was not the case. Pridmore says that the Surat Council's comment upon the inscription 'Charles the second, King of England' perhaps indicates that while the obverse was the normal Anglina type, the reverse was inscribed in Persian with the above inscription. The inscription on both sides of the coin is in all likelihood a Persian rendering of a Western language inscription. Hence it is established that the coin was struck by a foreign power. Estimate: ₹50000 - ₹60000

TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. This is a public auction sale conducted by Jain Auction House, a licensed Auctioneer, issued by the Archaeology Survey of India, (hereinafter referred to as "Auctioneer"). Bidding in this Auction constitutes acceptance by you (the "Bidder") of all the Terms and conditions stated herein and shall be bound by them. Bidders may include consignors whomay bid and purchase lots in the Auction consigned by the consignor or by other consignors. The Buyer is the Bidder who makes the highest bid accepted by the Auctioneer. Only Indian residents/NRIs having valid address in India can bid in our Auctions.
2. Lots may carry a Reserve. A Reserve is a confidential price or bid below which the Auctioneer will not sell an item or will re-purchase on behalf of the Consignor.
3. All lots are guaranteed genuine. Any claim of lack of authenticity must be made in writing by the original purchaser immediately after discovery that an item is not authentic, and upon making such a claim Jain Auction House shall, in its sole and absolute discretion, reserve the right to consult and rely upon any expert(s) or authority considered by him reliable in establishing the authenticity of that lot. If the lot is then proved not authentic then the original purchaser must immediately return the lot to Jain Auction House in the same condition as at the time of the auction with the original Invoice and payment proof. Lots that have been encapsulated ("slabbed")/Graded by a grading and/or authentication service may not be returned for any reason, including authenticity, if they have been removed from the encapsulation ("slab")/Grading.
4. Lots are sold as shown with all faults, imperfections and errors of description. Attribution, date, condition, and other descriptions are the opinion of the cataloguer, and no warranty is expressed or implied. Neither the auctioneer nor the seller shall give warranty to any buyer in respect of any lot, or be liable for any fault or error of description. All statements as to the items sold, whether made in catalogues, during the course of the auction, or otherwise are statements of opinion only, and are not and shall not be taken to be statements or representations of fact. The auctioneer reserves the right in forming his opinion, to consult and rely upon any expert or authority considered by him reliable. Notwithstanding the forgoing, if any lot should have been wrongly described in any material aspect, the buyer may reject the same, provided that he shall have given notice of intention to do so and shall have returned the same to the auctioneer within seven (7) days from the day of the Auction, Under no circumstances will the auctioneer be liable for any costs, expenses or damages incurred by the buyer in respect of any lot, including, but not limited to, loss of any kind of profit whatsoever. Estimates are intended as a guide only and not as a statement of opinion of value. Bidders are advised to scrutinize the lots they bid for.
5. The Auctioneer shall have the right to open or accept the bidding on any lot by placing a bid on behalf of the Consignor, a Bidder by mail, telephone, internet, or any other participant in the Auction. Bids must be for an entire lot and each lot constitutes a separate sale. Lots will be sold in their numbered sequence unless Auctioneer directs otherwise. Auctioneer shall have the right in his or her sole and absolute discretion to accept or decline any bid, challenge any bid or bidding increment, to reduce any mail bid received, adjudicate all bidding disputes and to determine the prevailing bid. The Auctioneer shall have the right, but not the obligation, to rescind the acceptance of any bid and place the lot for Auction again. Auctioneer's decision on all bidding disputes shall be binding and final.
6. No "unlimited" or "buy" bids will be accepted. When identical bids are received for a lot, preference is given to the first bid received as determined by the Auctioneer. A mail bid will take precedence over an identical floor bid. Bids will not be accepted from persons under eighteen (18) years of age. The estimate figure below each lot are the auctioneer's estimate of an expected price only, bids which are less than the lower estimate will not be considered by the auctioneer.
7. Your bids will be treated as your maximum bid. Jain Auction House is not responsible for any errors in bidding.
